v.8.2019

The Federation of Monroe County Environmentalists (FMCE)

is concerned about rapidly disappearing green space and wildlife habitat, as well as the impact of climate change on our region. We believe that informed citizens and decision makers will make better choices within our community while embracing balanced, sustainable development. Preserving and protecting environmental integrity benefits every citizen, now and in the future.

FMCE is a broad alliance of green groups and individuals that speak with a united voice.

- ☛ supporting protection of our land and water resources
- ☛ supporting preservation of farmland, open space, wildlife habitat and water quality
- ☛ supporting regional cooperation and planning
- ☛ supporting development of regional public and alternative transportation

FMCE Mission

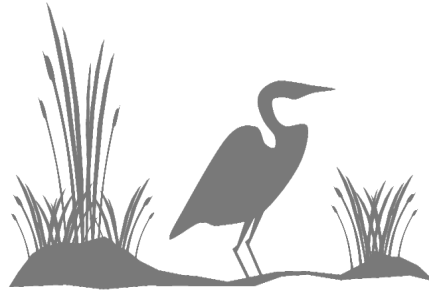

The Federation of Monroe County Environmentalists (FMCE)

- ☛ Facilitates communication among environmental groups
- ☛ Provides a central forum for local organizations to discuss issues, prioritize actions, and enlist wider support
- ☛ Presents positions to the public and to elected officials on issues vital to achieving a balance between environmental preservation and regional development

FMCE Activities include:

- ☛ Organizing efforts to preserve environmentally sensitive areas, green space, wildlife habitat and water resources
- ☛ Participating in the Master Plan process of County Parks and urging appropriate use of public parks
- ☛ Hosting monthly meetings to share information, collaborate and strategize citizen action on regional environmental priorities – this interaction provides a valuable tool for effective advocacy work

See our website for current activities, environmental alerts, pertinent links, reference documents, and more.
